August 17, 2023

1. Will the contractor be responsible for reviewing grant applications for either program? If yes, can NFWF provide estimates of how many applications the contractor will need to review for each program? A: No.
2. Is there an incumbent for this contract and/or has this work been performed by another contractor under a different contract vehicle? A: There is an existing field liaison contract which closes in fall 2023.
3. If the contractor has an existing relationship with an organization that is requesting grant funding through these programs, can the contractor recuse themselves from providing assistance to that grantee to avoid a conflict of interest? A: Yes. The field liaison would be required to identify any conflicts of interest and would expected to recuse themselves.
